Civic Symphony Concert to Note 'Twelfth Night'

The annual Christmas program of the Civic Symphony of Torrance and the South Bay will be presented at 8 p.m. on Jan. 6 in the Redondo High School auditorium. The program, "The Twelfth Night of Christmas," will be open to the public without charge.

The orchestra of 78 players will perform the first symphony of L. van Beethoven; "Dance of the Merlions" and "Tarantella" by Tchaikowski; "Sleigh Ride" and "Serenade" by Leroy Anderson, and Handel's "Halleluia Chorus."

An innovation for the orchestra will be the presentation of the "Brass Trio" by Poulenc, a string quartet playing J. S. Bach, and Schubert's "Ave Maria."

Mothers assisting will be Mrs. Ann Whittaker, leader, Mrs. Louise Soth, co-leader, and Mmes. Gayle Roeder, Eleanor Capuano, Barbara Kleinbauer, Monnalou St. John and Dorothy Ono.

Alternating with the music in the "Twelfth Night Masque" will be living reproductions of famous paintings. Among these will be the "Epiphany Scene" from the early 18th century; "Our Lady of Victory," "Bringing in the Yule Log," by Margaret Tarrant; "Carolers," by Thomas; "Santas" by Norman Rockwell; "Madona" by Raphael, and the traditional Nativity.

An open rehearsal of the program will be held beginning at 2:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon, Jan. 5, and children and their escorts have been given a special invitation to view the program at that time.

"It is hoped that no children will have to miss this program because of having to stay up late on a school night for the regular showing," Director Elyse Aehle said.
